UNION TRANSFER COMPANY WILL CONTEST VALUATION

$111,000 Rating Placed by Public Utilities Commission Is to Be Taken Into the Courts.

The valuation of $111,000 placed by the public utilities commission on the property of the Union Transfer Company will be contested in the courts. Announcement of its dissatisfaction with the rating and its intention to carry the case to the District Supreme Court was communicated to the com-mission by the company today through its attorneys, Darr, Peyser, Whiteford its attorneys, Darr, Peyser, Whiteford & Darr.

Before 'making the rating final the commission gave the company a hearing at the District building. The company introduced evidence to show that one of the buildings used by it as a stable in the square immediately back of the District building should have a reproduction value new of $37,251.06 instead of $21,500, as shown in the tentative valuation. With respect to other property items there was a wide difference between the commission's ratings and those of the company.

The final ratings established by the commission were: Cost of reproduction, new, $127,321.34; cost of reproduction, new, less depreciation, $111,327.26.

APPLE HOLDINGS DECREASE.

Agricultural Report Shows 1,056,-

539 Barrels in Storage. decrease of 47.8 per cent in apple ldings in storage throughout the United States October 15 from the same date last year is shown in a report just issued by the Department of Agriculture. Storage to the number of 274 report holdings equivalent to 1,056,539 barrels on October 15 as compared with 2,025,367 barrels a year ago.

The crop of the great northwest and southwest, however, seems almost normal. While New England, the north and south Atlantic states and the mid-west all show large declines in their apple crops in storage October 15 from holdings in storage the same date last year, the holdings in the northwest and southwest, including the states of Montana, Wyoming, Idaho, Washington, Oregon, Colorado, New Mexico, Arisona, Utah, Nevada and California, show holdings but slightly lower than last year.

ADRIAANS MUST STAND TRIAL FOR DISBARMENT

to Each Specification—Hearing Set for Friday.

John H. Adriaans, member of the bar, brought against him by the grievance committee of the bar in disbarment roceedings. Hearing has been fixed for Friday at 10 o'clock.

Chief Justice Covington today an jounced that the court was unanimous ly of the opinion that the plea of jurisdiction raised yesterday by counsel for the lawyer must be overruled as to each specification contained in the charges. Attorney Victor H. Wallace for Mr. Adrians noted an exception and announced that Mr. Adrians had filed answer to the charges. The court then directed a hearing for Friday.

Mr. Adrians. in his answer, denies any intention to mislead the court or to do anything improper, and claims that the actions complained of were mistakes of judgment. As to the charge that he removed a paper from the files of the Municipal Court and then secured a judgment in a claim which he had compromised, Mr. Adriaans says his signature to the paper was made through mistake of fact and under misrepresentation. The paper, he asserts, was never docketed and so was no part of the records of the court. He returned it, he points out, immediately on demand.

Concerning the charge that he prosecuted a suit in the Municipal Court in the name of a dead man without administration being taken out, Mr. Adriaans points out that the claim was a just one to which the man's widow was entitled, and as it was for only $4.05 it did not justify the expense of administration. He was authorized by the widow to file the suit, he asserts. In reference to the charge that he misrepresented the condition of an equity docket, when he secured a decree pro confesso before Justice McCoy, Mr. Adriaans says he honestly believed he was entitled to the decree. As it was vacated the next day, be says, no harm was done to any one. the lawyer must be overruled as to each specification contained in the
